

nicola ratti

Born in Milano in 1978. Musician and sound designer active since years in the experimental fields. He has performed live in Europe, North America, Russia and Japan and his albums had been released by labels such as Where To Now?, Boomkat Editions, Shelter Press, Room40, Students of Decay, Die Schachtel, Entr'acte, Senufo Editions, Holidays Records, Anticipate, Preservation. He is currently working with Giuseppe Ielasi with whom he formed the project entitled Bellows.

Since May 2015 he is one of the founder and curators at Standards, an experimental sound research gallery located in Milano, in 2016 he founded Frequente, an art organization based in Milano devoted to sound art and experimental performances. He is a founder member of NeitherSound, a Milan based company active in design and sound productions for exhibitions, performing arts and movies. He's currently working as live sound director and sound technician with Romeo Castellucci-Societas and with Silvia Costa as musician and sound designer.

His last album "Continental" has been released by Students of Decay in July 2019.

nicolaratti.com
twitter @nicolarattee
soundcloud.com/nicola-ratti standardstudio.it

